Questions from parents

What is the difference between a babysitter and a 'professional nanny'?

The biggest difference between a babysitter and a professional nanny is that you have a nann" with childcare allowance. Also your nanny needs 3 things in order to be a qualified professional nanny: 1. A diploma in for example pedagogy, psychology nursing or other as defined by the government

What does a professional nanny cost?

The hourly rate of a professional nanny is between 15 and 20 euros per hour. You also pay a fee for the childminding agency - this fee depends on the number hours you need your professional nanny. You can receive childcare allowance which covers the total costs. You pay 1.5 euros per hour and 99 per month for office costs.

Can a professional nanny help in with household chores?

Your professional nanny can pick up your children from school, cook, help the kids with homework and with dishwasher. You are super busy as a working parent - that we know, and we are happy to helpt with that!

How long does it take before I can apply for allowance?

From the moment you have met a professional nanny and we have done the house check, it takes 10 weeks at most before your guest nanny is officially registered. You can get the childcare allowance request up to 3 months later.

Do I pay the professional nanny in cash?

No! At the end of the month, the professional nanny fills in the hours worked and we will send you an overview of hours and payment in an invoice. You transfer this sum to us, and we pay the professional nanny .

Do I still have to pay fees to the municipality?

It differs on the municipality on whether or not you have to pay for the registration of your professional nanny. Ask us if you have to pay a fee in your city.

Questions from parents

What if my professional nanny leaves?

If your nanny leaves, we will arrange a replacement nanny for you! The cancellation time is 1 month.

What about the insurance?

The professional nanny has corporate liability insurance through us, so you don't need to worry about it.

Do I have to pay the professional nanny holiday pay?

No, the 8% holiday pay is already included in the hourly rate. Your professional nanny is entitled to days off that you still pay her. She is entitled to 4x the hours worked per week per year off. So suppose someone works 8 hours then the professional nanny receives 8x4 = 32 hours of paid leave per year.

What if my professional nanny is sick?

Your professional nanny has 2 'limbo'days on which she does not have to be paid. If she is sick longer? Then you pay 70% of the wage for 6 weeks, but the minimum wage. If your nanny is still sick after this period, she must be insured herself to receive unemployment benefits.

What do I get for office costs?

We ensure that all administration is in order and that your guest nanny has te correct and valid papers. You can also call us if your professional nanny is sick or if she should leave your family. We also guide your professional nanny, organize meetings and offer a community of colleagues to consult with. If your professional nanny leaves, we will arrange a replacement nanny for you! Include in your contract the cancellation period! Our advice: 2 months. You can also arrange that upon departure. For 6 months the professional nanny pays 50% of any empty costs.

Do I have to adjust my house?

Your house is seen as a safe location for kids to play and the nanny to work and must therefore be safe. We do a digital check with you to see if everything is right and which things could be improved. After that, the GGD will visit you yourself. (They make an appointment with the professional nanny)

Do I pay the professional nanny on holidays?

If a working day falls on a bank holiday, you will continue to pay your nanny. What makes our agency unique is the digital intakes that save you time, but of course also the large database of nice screened babysitters. With us you also have the app to book an evening babysitter, outside of the agreed-upon times you have with your professional nanny. We offer you complete service and security.

Roadmap

What now?

We are happy to look for your lovely guest nanny for No cure No pay.
Below is a step-by-step look at the process.

Step 1. Submit application

Step 2. Meet

We will meet search and send you a profile. If this fits your needs you can get to know this professional nanny.

Step 3. Request first aid and VOG

If you click, we will get started on preparing everything. Your host must have a valid first aid diploma and we apply for a VOG.

Step 4. Portabase administration form

We are happy to set u your administration. Kindly mail us and we will provide you a link where you can fill in all the information.

Step 5. Rie and intake + 129 euro payment

We are happy to make an appointment with you to get acquainted and to go trough your house digitally for the RIE check! #modern #hip. We do a pre-check so that te GGD will have few comments on home visits. For example, we pay attention to stair gates and fire alarms.

Step 6. Digital Glitter folder

This is also the moment we present you the 'glitter map' with our pedagogical policy plan and all information required.

Step 7. Contract

After the visit we will send you a draft contract in pdf. If this is agreeable, we will send it via a digital tool that will enable you to sign easily online.

Step 8. Now it takes another 10 weeks

Immediately after the RIE we will submit the LRK application tot he municipality. From now on it still takes a maximum of 10 weeks until your application is approved and yo can apply for the allowance.

Step 9. GGD visit and request surcharge

The GGD will contact your guest nanny to do the house check. They often ask your professional nanny to test to see if they know and are familiar with our pedagogical policy plan with the child abuse reporting code. Once they have visited, your professional nanny can be registered and be eligible and from that date you can request a childcare allowance!
